

PUBLIC NOTICE

EFFECTIVE IMMEDIATELY:

The New Hampshire Parole Board will, beginning Tuesday, March 17, 2020, hold all parole revocation and parole hearings as follows:

For revocation hearings on Tuesdays:

Hearings will proceed at the New Hampshire State Prison facilities. The only individuals who may be present at the hearings are the parolee, parolee's legal counsel, parolee's parole officer or agent of the parole officer, Parole Board members, Parole Board staff, and Department of Corrections' correctional officers.

For parole hearings on Thursdays:

Hearings will proceed at the New Hampshire State Prison facilities. The only individuals who may be present at the hearings are the resident, resident's legal counsel, victim – witness services representative, Parole Board members, Parole Board staff, and Department of Corrections' correctional officers.

All those attending must assent to a health screening upon entry to the NHSP.

These protocols will be reassessed on April 3, 2020, to conform with orders and guidelines consistent with state and Department of Corrections practices regarding COVID-19.

The Parole Board reserves the right to change these protocols if a change of circumstances occurs such that a change in protocols is warranted.
